Louisiana State University School of Medicine - Shreveport

The Medical School Building (B-Building) houses administrative offices, faculty offices, departmental administrative offices and several laboratories for clinical and basic science departments. It also houses the morgue.

The adjoining Building-C houses the Medical Library. All main lecture rooms, as well as the Health Sciences Center's auditorium are located in Building-B (or Building-C, the auditorium).

The school bookstore and student workout room reside in Building B.
